Preface . . .

What is that invisible band that binds the students of Covington High School together, that makes the school stand firm in academic and athletic activities? It's spirit, the spirit of students gone before, of other classes, other teams, other friendships. It is the spirit symbolized by the Cougar. This nineteen hundred and fifty-one PUFFS AND PATCHES attempts to acquaint you with that proud and wonderful COUGAR.

Paul and Buzzy

"Boodie": Teacher, Coach, Friend.

Dedication . . . .

TO A TRUE COUGAR

In recognition of his untiring efforts to promote the highest standards of sportsmanship and his constant endeavors for a hard game, clean-fought; in appreciation for the lesson in development of good character that he teaches through his own life; in gratitude for the helping hand always proffered; and finally in sincere and heart-felt thanks for the warmth and kindness of his wonderful heart, we dedicate this 1951 edition of PUFFS AND PATCHES to Francis Joseph Albert, Jr.

Best wishes [illegible]

A PLACE IN OUR MEMORY

ALLAN MORTON BARNWELL

Covington High School mourns the passing of Allan Morton Barnwell, our beloved science teacher for many years. Mr. Barnwell was loyal, conscientious, and deeply interested in the boys and girls whom he taught. His kindness and his consideration for others will never be forgotten by those who knew him. We revere his memory and we can sincerely say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Best of luck and wishes to a sweet girl. Don't let those
Green glasses run away with you.

With the coming of spring also comes the end of our senior year. We have studied hard and long; soon we will reap the fruits of our labors. We began at the very bottom of the ladder, evolved into that ecstatic world of the juniors, where one is second only to the seniors and higher only than the sophomores. At last we emerged into the clouds and ascended the throne of the seniors. Being a senior has meant more to us than merely the end of our high school career. We have had to lay aside trivialities and take up larger responsibilities and more mature ways. It has been our job to set the example in manners, school spirit, scholarship and cooperation. We have done our best and we hope Covington High is a little better for our effort.

A junior lives his life playing the middleman between the dominating seniors and the humble sophomores. Being a junior means being an in-between, taking razz, and acting somewhat dominating. A junior is considered to have reached the hump of his high school career; and, when thinking of the next year, he glows with suppressed enthusiasm. The junior class this year is composed of many different species including the brains, semi-brains, and the non-brains. The variety of activities in high school adds spice to a junior's life because he has another year to look forward to. Participation in the various activities throughout the year increases his school spirit. Each has contributed to some special field, either in sports or in scholastic activities—sometimes to both. Each has done his share through courtesy and cooperation to make the class in general a very good one.

September of 1950 found the doors of Covington High School opened to the largest class of sophomores ever to enroll at C. H. S.—294. Some were a little afraid of this new life, but after the rush of the first few days was over the lowly creatures settled down to work, feeling as welcome as the rest of the student body. But this was a short period of peace, for initiation day soon rolled around. Coming to school dressed like circus clowns with buckets in which to carry the books of their masters, the juniors, the sophomores were once more reminded of their low positions. But this too was soon forgotten, for they caught the spirit of the school and began to feel that they really belonged to the greatest school in the world.

. . . . MY ALMA MATER . . . .

One remembers the little things in high school, like being unable to open my locker for the first three weeks and the day Miss Mahaney threw an eraser at me. I can remember exasperating classes, where I felt I simply could not go on, because I was sure I would never understand the subject matter. I was positive that the teacher expected too much, but now I can see that one learns most when he is pushed and I am beginning to fully appreciate those moments of seemingly utter futility.

I remember assemblies too. It seemed to me an unbearable rule to have to be last to leave simply because one was unfortunate enough to be a sophomore. Now, as a senior, I have experienced one of the greatest thrills of my life—marching in to the "Alma Mater" while every sophomore and junior stands, waiting until all seniors are in. Now I smile inwardly seeing the impatient looks of the sophomores as they wait, the angry stares of the juniors as the sophomore makes ready to dash as soon as possible.

I remember lunch time rush, the sound of the wind in the second floor hall during March, the silence of the library like the stillness of a brook that runs quietly and then breaks up suddenly at intervals and bubbles and is immediately stilled again. I remember, too, the coming of spring when all the windows are open to admit talk and laughter and the effervescence that is spring itself.

Remembrances of exam time leap up, and instead of horrors, I think of the fun of the rush for lunch between exams, the last minute hurried scanning of notes, and the immense relief when exams are gone till another day. I remember listening to the World Series in Phys. Ed. and in the halls between classes, then the whispering of scores across the aisles in classes.

These things I remember, and the aching band of pride that tightens around my throat when I speak or think of C. H. S. makes me know that the spirit of our Alma Mater will stand in the hearts of her children even as the "encircling mountains, beautiful and blue" which have stood for untold centuries will continue to stand.

"Hail to thee, our Alma Mater, Covington High, all hail."

Editorial Staff, Upper Picture—Seated: Hatcher, Lam, Bussard, Tingler, Rea, Roach, Hiler, Miss Kenny, McAllister, Carter, Shumate.

Standing: K. Andrews, Sites, Miller, Kesner, Holcomb, D. Andrews, Crawford, Baker, Mrs. Rose.

Business Staff, Lower Picture—Seated: Miss Maheny, Carden, Brown, East, Childs, Nickell.

Standing: Johnson, Paxton, Mefford, Long, Young, King, Persinger, Campbell, Humphries, Womac, Ritch.

Dear Heart,

Today I saw the proud parents of the annual. All 35 were hard at work, writing, taking pictures, collecting advertisements, checking lists, and painstakingly depriving us of our money. They are delighted to work and we students are glad to pay, because the product is really worth the trouble and the money.

Some reckon time by stars,
And some by hours;
Some measure days by dreams,
And some by flowers;
My heart alone records
My days and hours.

STUDENT COUNCIL AND DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS

Upper Picture—Seated: Persinger, Turner, Roach, Crizer, Steele, Andrews, Hiler, B. Tingler, Wilmer, J. Tingler.

Standing: Perdue, Mrs. Lunger, Mongole, Elinger, Rea, Entsminger, Quick, Anderson, Whitesel, Benson, Womack, Glover, Mr. Beamer.

Second Row: Lemon, Burnette, Lunger, Keith, Paxton, Long, Ramsey, Hawkins, Saunders.

Standing: (Girls) Humphries, Stinespring, McCarthy, Vick, Milton, Brubaker, Biggs, Wilhelm, Vest, Moran, Schumaker, Keyser. (Boys) Van Devender, Landrum, Terry, Elfrink, Jamison, Brown, Brizendine, Loving, Dame, Lacks, Ogden, Persinger, Linton, Ervin, Mr. Hoover, Whitesel, Wright.

"Wrong steps," "don't break cafeteria line," "no one up stairs at noon," that's the voice of authority from the Student Council. It's work as well as an honor to belong to that governing body. The Student Council exemplifies democracy in action.

The D. O.'s are quite a group! It's not everyone who can fit a job and school work into one day, every day of the school week.

. . . . WHICH THE CLUBS . . . .

MAJORETTES AND GIRLS' SPORTS CLUB

Majorettes: Pearson, Lanum, Shepard, Montgomery, Leighton; Drum Major: Dillon; Sports Club: Ailstock, Austin, Biggs, Crowder, Hite, Lair, McCormick, A. Matheny, N. Matheny, Morgan, Null, Perkins, Plott, Quick, Richmond, Rogers, D. Rudisell, S. Rudisell, C. Smith, F. Smith, Thompson, Trainer, Turner, Vest, Wright.

The sharp sound of a whistle, the twirl of a baton, and the high stepping majorettes swing out onto the field before the band, led by the drum major. As pert as their white and gold uniforms, they stir up school spirit and start the Cougars off to another victory.

The girls in the Sports Club are also high steppers. Dancing, be it primitive, modern, or somewhere in between, is their specialty. Their assembly program on the history of the dance was a real accomplishment in which each member took part under the direction of Mrs. White. They gave us a tumble!

TRI-HI-Y AND BETA CLUBS

Second Row: Andrews, Wilmer, Slick, Gibson, Bartley, Hammond, Fridley, Devers, Persinger, Crizer, Ethel Smith, Carter.

Third Row: Hepler, Reid, Wyatt, Hatcher, Linkenhoker, Humphries, Brown, Lawhorne, Hardy, Ogden.

Fourth Row: Miller, Rhodes, Edith Smith, Shumate, Miss Kenny, Rea, Mrs. Clarke, A. Humphries.

Third Row: Keith, King, Hinkle, Mr. Meredith, Hawkins, Tingler, M. Persinger, McCormick, Watson, Holcomb, Beamer.

Tri-Hi-Y! How much that name means! Start out with character; add religious feelings; include helpful projects for the needy; top mixture off with training and fun combined. Bake well once a month in Covington, add frosting at Richmond assembly. Result? A Tri-Hi-Y to be proud of!

Beta Club stands for Brains. Oh, to have a 90 average! Leadership, achievement, and character plus those good grades qualify juniors for Beta Club membership. Long may they study!

. . . . PROVIDE, AND THE . . . .

HOME ECONOMICS AND SCIENCE CLUBS

Upper Picture—Seated: Jones, Andrews, Frye, Weese, Collins, Brooks, Clarke, Noel, Walthall, Bartley.
Standing: Kounse, Fitzgerald, Charles, Entsminger, Bland, Wells, Armentrout, Gray, Crookshanks, Ballard, Franklin, Miss Hepler, Miss Perry.

Lower Picture—Seated: Bazarre, Cook, Payne.
Standing: Linkenhoker, Oliver, Hayslett, Persinger, Lemon, Pogue, Mr. Meredith, Kandris, Lunger, Gibson, Andrews, Long, Deacon, Warlitner.

Carefully dressed families, good food, clean houses, and well planned parties will make Covington home life the country's best. Why? The Home Economics Club is getting prepared! Get caught, boys, get caught!

"Boom!" Another explosion! It must have come from the Chemistry room where the Science Club is holding its meeting. Experiments are carried on there under the watchful eye of Mr. Meredith. The school might blow up, but the Science Club marches on.

. . . . HARD WORK DONE . . . .

RED CROSS AND AUDITORIUM CLUBS

Upper Picture—First Row: Andrews, Swartz, Sampson, M. Persinger, Guth, Wolfe, Thomas.
Second Row: Sellers, Moore, Bowen, Dressler, Payne, Cline, Miss Martz, Hite.
Third Row: Lynn, Carter, Stone, Lemon, B. Persinger, King, Smith, Myers.

Lower Picture—Keith, Perdue, Johnson, Conner, B. Sizemore, Keesee, Mr. Hoover, Key, Fenderson, G. Sizemore, Woodson, Waller, Shepard, Hatcher.

The Red Cross Club is a welcome newcomer to Cougar-land. These young Florence Nightingales are learning to care for the sick and to administer First Aid. In case of a broken head call for "Dr." Martz.

It's so nice to have a man around the house! The Auditorium Club members replace the burned-out lights, wash the globes, and work on stage settings. They keep the grounds and concessions clean during football season. What men!

. . . . BY THE GUYS AND GALS . . . .

DRAMATICS AND MILITARY CLUBS

Upper Picture—First Row: Fridley, Paxton, S. Steele, Bouchard, Edith Smith.
Second Row: Carson, Humphries, Hoover, Wright, Ethel Smith.
Third Row: Wilmer, Andrews, Lawhorne, O'Connor, Ayers, Newman, Mrs. Wright.
Fourth Row: B. Steele, Persinger, King, Glover.

Lower Picture—First Row: Mays, Byer, Campbell, Kelley, Rose, Wade, Riley.
Second Row: Vess, Gibson, Jones, Hevener, Ginger, Carter, Scruggs.

Glamorous, that's what they are! Imagine the thrill of learning to act and being in plays. The Dramatics Club also gave the Snow Ball, that exciting dance during the winter. Mrs. Wright and her group win applause every time.

With war so near, the Military Club has been re-organized. They will not soon forget their first combat—with the door of room 205 which locked them in for two hours. Blush, Mr. Beamer, blush!

. . . . WHO ARE MEMBERS . . . .

PUBLIC SPEAKING AND HUNTING AND FISHING CLUBS

Upper Picture—Seated: Gibson, Coiner, Williams, Andrews, Nance.

Standing: Hepler, Saunders, Paxton, Brown, Wade, Ward, Biggs, Anderson, Snyder, Miss Barbery, Moran.

Lower Picture—First Row: Deacon, Nahouse, Angle, Cadd, J. Hawkins, Bunch.

Second Row: Stinnett, B. Tingler, Wilhelm, B. Hawkins, Richardson, Crizer, Riddleberger.

Third Row: Martin, Humphries, Baker, Smith, Mayo, Landis, Reyns, Carter, Lockhart.

Fourth Row: Glass, Reynolds, Hastings, Hanks, Henderson, Mr. Squires, Oliver, McFadden, Miller, Linkenhoker, Hite.

Wednesday is a great day for the Public Speaking Class. The members are developing the welcome art of improving speeches. Their poise and self-confidence before an audience astound the more timid who confine their talking to wise cracks mumbled under the range of teacher-hearing.

Movies and discussions enliven the Hunting and Fishing Club meetings. The fellows are learning to be good and cautious hunters while they hear the "Call of the Wild."

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

On Stage: D. Hawkins, Vice-President; B. Ramsey, Treasurer; P. Rea, Secretary; G. Long, President.

First Row: Bartley, Shifflett, Linkenhoker, Nickell, Wilmer, Lanum, Roberts, D. Via, Leighton, B. Via, Mrs. Fleshman, Director.

Second Row: Armstrong, Fudge, Taylor, Shumate, Beazley, Pearson, King, Humphries, Mitchell.

Third Row: Young, Wilmer, Shepard, Rhodes, Smith, Riley, Kesner, Snead.

Fourth Row: Hite, Anderson, Huffman, Courtland Bostic, Lemon, Parker, Carrol Bostic, Stone, Wolfred, Andrews.

The first Friday of the month brings the all-student assembly program. The Student Council officers conduct these meetings, Gene Long introducing the speaker and Pat Rea reading the scripture. Music is provided by the A Cappella Choir. Their maroon and white robes are a familiar part of school life, and their singing warms the heart.

. . . . ACTIVITIES ARE . . . .

BLUE AND GOLD BAND

Members of the Band are:

Frances Adams, Wallace Adcox, Elsie Armstrong, Sherry Austin, Jerry Ballangee, Lawrence Beamer, Joan Beazley, Jimmy Birchette, Billy Bird, Ronald Boswell, Bobby Bush, Gene Campbell, Will Clarke, Arthur Crause, W. O. Crawford, June Dame, Frank Hammond, Jack Harrington, Bobby Hatcher, Freda Hatcher, Bert Hudnall, Carl Key, Freddie Keyser, Kenneth King, Jean Mitchell, Buddy Newcomb, Dewey O'Conner, Lloyd Parker, Shelby Reid, Franklin Reynolds, Donald Riley, Skeeter Robertson, Bobby Rock, Charles Rodgers, Joe Saunders, Shelby Schumaker, Roy Seal, Norma Shears, Helen Schumaker, Bill Staton, Sammy Stone, Doris Varner, Homer Wolfred, Anna Wallace, Tommy Winn, Donald Young, Helen Young.

Drum Major: Jimmy Dillon.

Majorettes: Lawanda Lanum, Patsy Leighton, June Montgomery, Joan Pearson.

Impressive, that's their adjective—You can't beat the band in looks, music or spirit. Who can imagine a football game, pep rally, or school life in general without them!

. . . . AN ESSENTIAL PART . . . .

GIRLS' AND BOYS' GLEE CLUBS

Upper Picture—First Row: Shifflett, A. Roberts, Fridley, Roach, M. Persinger, Smith, McAllister, Lanum, Linkenhoker, Comer, Hatcher, Crizer, Kounse.

Second Row: Hammond, Paxton, Carter, Childs, Via, Hoover, Burwell, Franklin, Adcox, Devers, Elizabeth Wright, Carden, Hevener, Harding.

Second Row: Gilbert, Hinkle, Andrews, Rhodes, Kesner, Carrol Bostic, Harris, Bussard, Matthews.

Third Row: Gaylor, Fenderson, Riley, Felty, Lemon, Wolfred, Huffman, Anderson, Courtland Bostic, Wilmer.

Director: Mrs. Fleshman.

What a thrill to hear the Glee Clubs burst into song! Their spring concert is a joy. The Girls' Glee Club also helps present the Christmas concert. Music really has charms.

"THE ROYAL ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS"

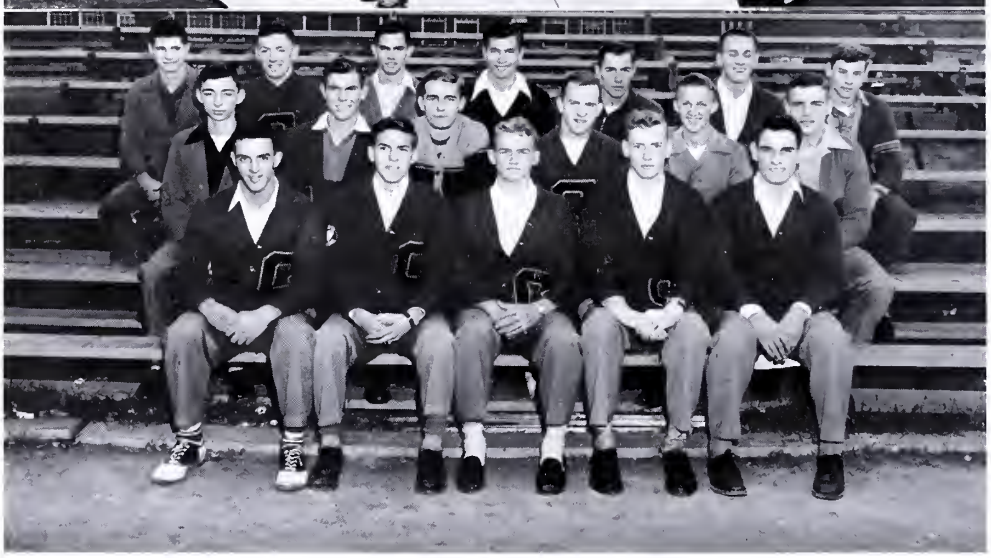
Seated: Anderson, Kesner, Huffman, Bazzarre, Ramsey, Hardy, Smith, Linkenhoker.

Standing: Oliver, Long, Paxton, Mrs. Lunger, Phillips, Payne, Price.

The members of homeroom 205 take pride in their unique name, the "Odd Fellows." Men of Distinction also suits them since the football co-captains, student body president, governor, attorney-general, and sheriff call 205 "home." Musical talent and school spirit abound there, too. What a homeroom!

The blackboard which the Oddies keep filled with lively quotations rates a visit every day by every student. Nothing surpasses this one, "Save your Confederate money, boys, the South will rise again."

MONOGRAM CLUBS



Girls—First Row: Matheny, Rhodes, Roach.
Second Row: Stone, Null, Johnson, Long, Persinger, Keyser, Plott.
Third Row: Mrs. White.

Boys—First Row: Ramsey, Long, Fenderson, Lemon, Felty.
Second Row: Greenway, Sizemore, Humphries, Myers, Linton, Camper.
Third Row: Hawkins, Dressler, Cottrell, McCauley, Hughes, Huffman, Swartz.

The Monogram Clubs consist of our stars, our prides and joys, our most cheered and most beloved Cougars. The girls who made this year known by its exciting basketball season and the boys who formed the best, most colorful football team ever to wear the blue and gold make up the proud membership of the Monogram Club. The cheerleaders, managers and softball, baseball and track athletes round out these clubs.

Best of everything to a sweet gal. Remember me next year. Laura

BEST OF LUCK TO A SWEET GIRL
HA-HA-HISTORY = HA HA
HENRY KING

THE CHEERLEADERS

First Row: Bouchard, Roach, Andrews, Rhodes.
Second Row: Steele, Matheny, Wilmer, King.

The very name, cheerleader, signifies pep and school spirit. It calls to mind many exciting scenes: white uniforms, blue monograms, and eight students enthusiastically leading T-E-A-M in perfect unison; a convertible, topdown, decked with cheerleaders swinging into the field behind the band; pep rallies in the fall; basketball games in full swing; and a Sadie Hawkins Dance with loads of hay and a blushing Lil' Abner. Fifteen "rahs" for the cheerleaders!

1950 FOOTBALL SQUAD

First Row: Andrews, Manager; Gumm, Manager; Huffman, Henderson, Hughes, Faison, Warlitner, Claytor, Humphries, Drumheller, Dressler, Lunger, Sizemore, Plott, Manager; Altizer, Coach Warren Squires.

Second Row: Myers, Hamm, Fenderson, Camper, D. Hawkins, Wolfe, Saunders, Felty, Woodson, R. Ramsey, Alfred, Swartz, Wade, Smith.

Third Row: Coach Boodie Albert, McCauley, Phillips, Key, Waller, Cottrell, B. Hawkins, Keesee, Long, Deacon, Welford, Mountcastle, H. Ramsey, Perdue, Stinespring.

The Covington High School Cougars had one of the most successful gridiron seasons in the history of the high school. They piled up 234 points in wading through a 10-game schedule undefeated to stretch a winning streak carried over from last year to 16 games. It is the longest unbeaten string ever tallied by the Cougars.

Only 47 points were scored against the Cougars in 10 games this season. Waynesboro was the only opponent that crossed the Cougars goal line twice in one game.

The Cougars were the only undefeated team in District 5 football and nabbed the conference championship with a clean 7-0 slate. It was the third time in the last five years that Coach Boodie Albert has guided the Cougars to the loop championship.

Since Coach Albert was named head football coach here in 1946, the Cougars have won 41 games and lost seven. They have dropped only five conference games in the last five years while ringing up 27 victories.

The Cougars dubbed Clifton Forge again this year to walk off with the Little Brown Jug for the sixth successive year.

Bobby Ramsey wound up as the big ground gainer for the Cougars for the second successive year. In 10 games this season, Ramsey reeled off 614 yards for an average of eight yards per carry.

The Cougars were slated to meet William Byrd for the Blue Ridge Championship, but snow and cold weather forced school officials to cancel the game.

BASEBALL AND TRACK

1. "Boodie" and the track team. 2. Run, Happy! 3. Sonny and glove. 4. On all fours he runs. 5. Last lap. 6. Slide!

The year 1947 saw track added to the C. H. S. sports field, and the year 1950 saw this sports finest team. James Cottrell made the best showing in the district meet at Winchester by winning the 220 yard dash in 24.2 seconds and the 100 yard dash in 10.5 seconds.

The Cougar nine won only three games out of a schedule of nine but were saved some humiliation by losing four others by not more than three runs.

Sept. 4—Oh, the sun shines bright on our old Virginny school, it's school time, the faces are gay? Seriously, though, I think everybody is glad to be back again.

THE IMPRINT OF PRIDE

PRINTING is the great constructive force of the modern civilized world. It plays the indispensable part in the dissemination of news, in the expression and progression of political ideals, in the records and exchange of commerce and industry. It democratizes education, science, art, music —and broadens the scope of everything it touches. ¶To appreciate its high place in the esteem of an enlightened world, PRINTING MUST BE WELL DONE. Our offering to the cause of BETTER PRINTING is REPRESENTED IN THIS ANNUAL
